ELA: We are working on comparing information from two texts and we continue to work on main idea, key details, and inferences. We have also done a few lessons on similes and metaphors.

Writing: Our writing focus this quarter is informational writing. We are working on incorporating information from two texts to support a topic. We are also doing Writing Wednesdays, where we read a quote of a week and write to different prompts.

Project: Our project is picking back up next week in the afternoons.

Important Notes

We have benchmark testing next week. Remembering that we are not a test score, and these tests are here to see what we know in the moment. 😊
